

DORMITORY REGULATIONS

Students in the Dormitory of the Hanoi University of Public Health are required to follow and comply with the regulations:

1. Strictly follow the prescribed time in the dorm: return to the Dormitory no later than 23:00 daily.
2. Strictly implement 5S regulations in the dormitory (Criteria are given in 02 attached checklists).
3. Perform cleaning duty in the room, the public rest room and the laundry areas according to the arrangement by the head of the room and Dormitory Management Board to ensure the cleanness and neatness according to 5S criteria.
4. Immediately report to the Security Department and the Dormitory Management Board when having any unusual situations in the room such as: stealing, fighting, etc. At the same time, be responsible for helping and creating conditions for the person in charge to carry out the tasks.
5. Students are strictly forbidden to drink alcohol, to smoke cigarettes and pipe tobacco, to gamble in any form, to broker and trade prostitution, to buy, sell, store and use addictive substances, weapons and materials causing fire and explosion, toxic causing environmental pollution in the dormitory.
6. Cooking is strictly forbidden in the room. Do not connect electricity illegally. The electric circuit breaker must be turned off, all the windows closed, the door locked and the key returned to the Security Department when the last person leaves the room.
7. Fully manage assets, facilities, equipment already installed in the room and common properties in the dormitory, self- manage personal properties.
8. Absolutely do not hang out curtains around the bed. Do not move, remove the installed equipment in the room and public places. If causing damaged or lost, compensation must be made and subject to disciplinary measures, depending on the seriousness of the violation.
9. Do not arbitrarily move to another room or let other people stay in your place without the consent of the Dormitory Management Board. When wishing to leave the Dormitory, the student must submit an application to the Dormitory Management Board and follow the prescribed procedures.
10. Complete financial obligations related to the Dormitory according to the regulations of the University.
11. Must obtain permission from the Dormitory Management Board when organizing collective activities in the Dormitory.

Students who violate the Regulations, depending on the severity of their violations, will be subject to penalties and disciplinary measures prescribed by the University.

Hanoi, 15 March, 2019

Rector

Bui Thi Thu Ha